Discussion

4. City Gender Inclusivity Training Updates
  1. RFP for Gender Inclusivity trainer is live and will close May 21st – EVERYONE please spread the word!!
    1. Hoping to have a trainer under contract by this fall
  2. Destiny and Dawn haven't gotten to connect about advertising across the Enterprise/re-rolling out this programming once we have a trainer under contract – DESTINY will follow up
5. ASL Interpreter Training Updates
  1. Pros – lots of people registered, 2 Deaf people showed up (one Certified Deaf Interpreter), content went well, several attendees asked for follow-up trainings and to continue this work
  2. Cons – a lot of the people registered dropped out due to external factors (6 people showed up), MRID let Hunta know last-minute that they wouldn't be advertising it (which impacted attendance) and so don't want to work with them next time, virtual is harder than face-to-face

3. Nick from Neighborhood and Community Relations will be drafting RFPs for 2022 contracts with interpreters and translators soon; he will work with Track as there is a need to require in those RFP's that our contractors go through trans-inclusivity training while under contract with us. Hunta's training was essentially a pilot of what those could look like, first round of official NCR trainings will likely be in 2022
6. Materials for Outreach Staff
  1. Track and Ash have started to brainstorm some content for basic trans 101 materials for the new encampment outreach staff – need to finalize materials
  2. Park Board is also in the early stages of figuring out trainings for their Violence Prevention staff and wanted to consult with us but we never managed to meet with them – will attempt to reschedule
  3. TRACK – follow up with Ash, Elise (also check if there is any awareness around Deaf community)

Adjournment - 3:07 PM
